

activities

Fruit Descriptions :

Simple Vocabulary

Learning

Suitable for :

Children in primary school.

Beginners learning English.

Home or classroom educational activities.

Banana

I am a banana, long and yellow.

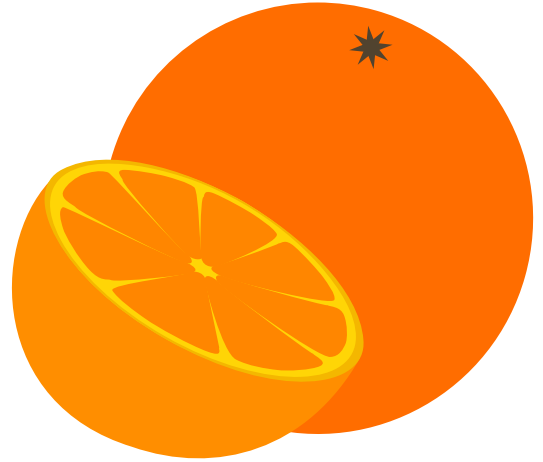

Monkeys love eating me.

I grow in tropical regions.

People often use me in smoothies.

My peel is slippery when thrown on the ground.

Orange

I am an orange, round and juicy.

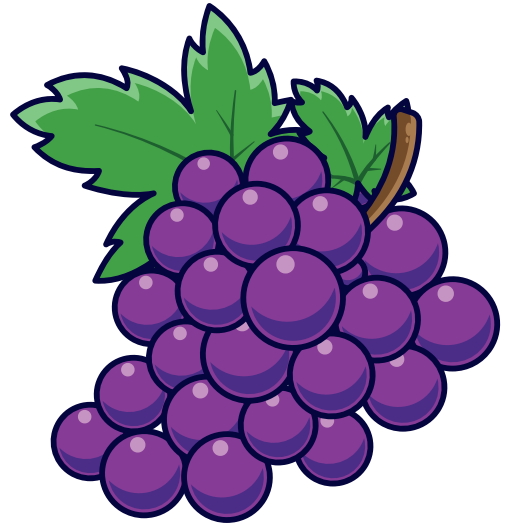

I am rich in vitamin C.

My color matches my name.

You can squeeze me to make juice.

I have a thick peel that protects me.

Grapes

I am a bunch of grapes, small and sweet.

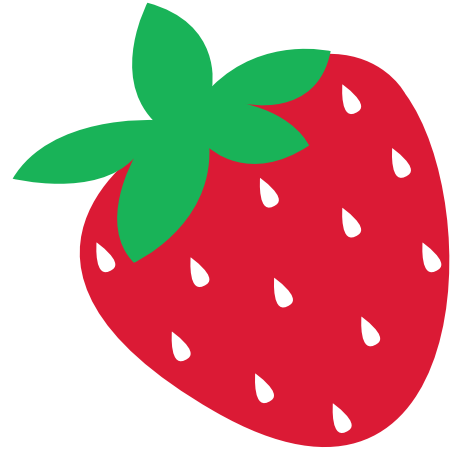

I come in green, red, or purple colors.

People dry me to make raisins.

I grow on vines in clusters.

I am often used to make wine.

Strawberry

I am a strawberry, red and heart-shaped.

I have small seeds on my surface.

I am used to make delicious jams.

People dip me in chocolate as a treat.

My season is usually spring and summer.

Pineapple

I am a pineapple, big and spiky.

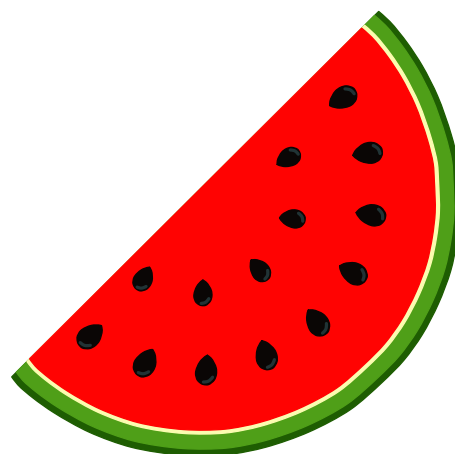

I have a crown of green leaves.

My inside is yellow and very sweet.

I am a common topping for pizzas.

I grow in warm climates like Hawaii.

Watermelon

I am a watermelon, green outside and red inside.

I am full of water and refreshing in summer.

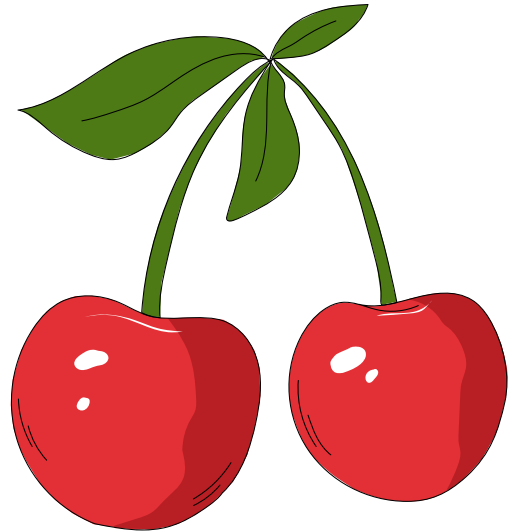

My seeds can be black or white.

People eat me in slices or make juice.

My rind is used to make pickles in some cultures.

Cherry

I am a cherry, small and red.

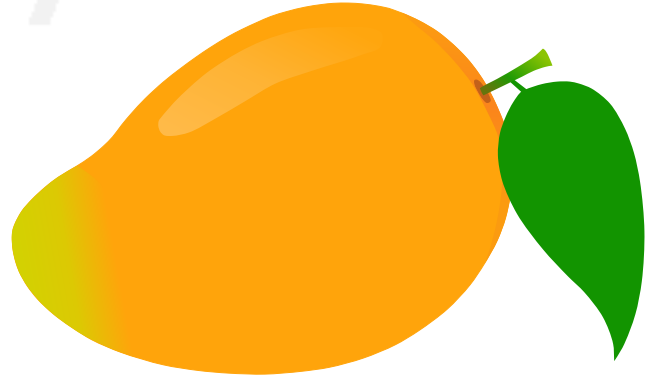

I grow on trees in the summer.

My flavor can be sweet or sour.

I am often placed on top of desserts.

People use me to make pies and tarts.

Mango

I am a mango, sweet and tropical.

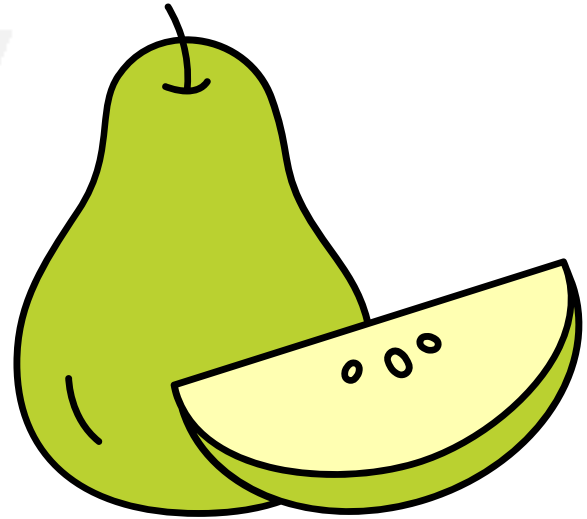

I am known as the "king of fruits" in some countries.

My skin can be green, yellow, or red.

I am commonly used in shakes and salads.

I have a big seed in the middle.

Pear

I am a pear, green and bell-shaped.

My texture is soft and juicy.

I grow in orchards during autumn.

I am often eaten fresh or baked in desserts.

My skin can also be yellow or brown.

Blueberry

I am a blueberry, tiny and blue.

I grow on bushes in clusters.

I am a superfood rich in antioxidants.

People use me in muffins and pancakes.

My season is usually summer